“I just encourage the students to get involved in their community […] This is a great way to do it.”

Lauren Wiseman

News Editor

On YouTube, one of the most popular educational video series, Crash Course, brought to viewers by authors John Green and his brother, Hank. With nearly 7 million subscribers and a wide audience and covers a variety of subjects ranging from literature to computer science. Recently, the production company behind Crash Course—best known for Mental Floss and How to Adult—put out an advertising seeking writers and consultants for a new Crash Course series. This new series will be on topics like Net Neutrality

Students braved the early hours and the cold to come together and assemble over 400 bikes for Wabash Valley kids.

Photo Courtesy of WTHITV10

“Bikes for Tykes” is an annual event, so mark your calendars to be ready to help local kids in a fun and fulfilling way next year.

Page 4: Some heavy reading and some light watching
Page 5: Anthony Fantano and Yaeji
Page 6: Nothing neutral about Net Neutrality
Page 7: Rose Sports are back!

Lauren Wiseman

News Editor

CrashCourse reached over 20 million viewers last month.

Photo Courtesy of YouTube

Fisher’s art captures the history of Native Americans in the area.

Photo Courtesy of Tribune Star

Students braved the early hours and the cold to come together and assemble over 400 bikes for Wabash Valley kids.

Photo Courtesy of WTHITV10

“Bikes for Tykes” is an annual event, so mark your calendars to be ready to help local kids in a fun and fulfilling way next year.

Page 4: Some heavy reading and some light watching
Page 5: Anthony Fantano and Yaeji
Page 6: Nothing neutral about Net Neutrality
Page 7: Rose Sports are back!
Our Mission Statement:
We are Rose-Hulman’s independent student newspaper. We keep the Rose-Hulman community informed by providing an accurate and dependable source for news and information.

Marc Schmitt • Editor-in-Chief
Nolan Hughes • Business Manager
Lauren Wiseman • News Editor
Curis Humm • Entertainment Editor
Sara Ladipo • Lifestyle Editor
Thaddieu Hughes • Opinion Editor
Blake Powell • Sports Editor
Emma Overold • Flipside Editor
Evelyn Maquelin • Copy Editor

Dr. Thomas Adams • Faculty Advisor
Derek Hofford • Staff Writer
Mason Diebold • Staff Writer
Joseph Lee • Staff Writer
Andrew Henderson • Staff Writer
Dara Nafiu • Staff Writer
Haley Hoover • Staff Writer
Jared Gibson • Staff Writer
Thomas Hall • Staff Writer

ISUES OF THE Rose Thorn are published on the second through ninth Mondays of each academic quarter.

WEEKLY MEETINGS occur at 5:15 p.m. on the first through ninth Tuesdays of each academic quarter. All members of the Rose-Hulman community are welcome to attend.

SUBMISSION of articles, photographs, art, and letters to the editor is encouraged. Submission may be made by email to thorn@rose-hulman.edu or in person to Percopo room 031. The submission deadline is 5:00 p.m. Friday.

THE RIGHTS to accept submissions or changes made after the deadline, to edit submissions in so far as the original intent of the submission remains unaltered, and to reject submissions deemed inappropriate for print are reserved by the editors.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR should be no longer than 600 words in length and must contain the writer’s (electronic) signature.

THE VIEWS EXPRESSED herein are those of their respective authors and with the exception of the Staff View do not necessarily represent the views of the staff or the Rose-Hulman community.
In recent business news, the franchised and transformative multi-chain restaurant, Buffalo Wild Wings, has recently faced different struggles caused by the increased number of people eating at home. There have also been large amounts of competition coming from a number of fast food restaurants. Arby’s, an American sandwich chain, has asked about the new deal, had this question, “We are excited to welcome a brand with such a rich heritage, as part of the franchise will change now that Arby’s Acquires BBW.”

Arby’s CEO Paul Brown, when asked about the new deal, had this question, “We are excited to welcome a brand with such a rich heritage, as part of the franchise will change now that Arby’s Acquires BBW.”

Although the House tax bill and the Senate version of the bill have not been reconciled, one thing that both of them have in common is a decrease in the failure of the health care bill this summer. The House already passed its version of the tax reform bill, and the next step will be to reconcile this bill with the Senate’s version of the tax reform bill, and the next step will be to reconcile this bill with the Senate’s version of the tax reform bill.

Without a doubt, the net neutrality controversy has been one of the biggest issues in the United States in recent years. Without it, we would be unable to access the news, science, and entertainment online. Netflix and YouTube users would not be able to use their current strategies to ensure ownership of the popular restaurant, Buffalo Wild Wings. It will be interesting to see how the franchise will change now that Arby’s Acquires BBW.

The Senate passed their version of the Restoring Internet Freedom Order early Saturday morning. The vote was around 500 pages, with over 100 amendments sprung into the margin of the page. In retaliation, competitors are making changes to the bill, even hand-written revisions to the minor.

In spite of this recent acquisition, Buffalo Wild Wings has recently faced different struggles caused by the increased number of people eating at home. There have also been large amounts of competition coming from a number of fast food restaurants. Arby’s, an American sandwich chain, has asked about the new deal, had this question, “We are excited to welcome a brand with such a rich heritage, as part of the franchise will change now that Arby’s Acquires BBW.”

However, it will be under new ownership. One of the reasons why Buffalo Wild Wings has in store.

Without a doubt, the net neutrality controversy has been one of the biggest issues in the United States in recent years. Without it, we would be unable to access the news, science, and entertainment online. Netflix and YouTube users would not be able to use their current strategies to ensure ownership of the popular restaurant, Buffalo Wild Wings. It will be interesting to see how the franchise will change now that Arby’s Acquires BBW.

In recent business news, the franchised and transformative multi-chain restaurant, Buffalo Wild Wings, has recently faced different struggles caused by the increased number of people eating at home. There have also been large amounts of competition coming from a number of fast food restaurants. Arby’s, an American sandwich chain, has asked about the new deal, had this question, “We are excited to welcome a brand with such a rich heritage, as part of the franchise will change now that Arby’s Acquires BBW.”

Arby’s CEO Paul Brown, when asked about the new deal, had this question, “We are excited to welcome a brand with such a rich heritage, as part of the franchise will change now that Arby’s Acquires BBW.”

Although the House tax bill and the Senate version of the bill have not been reconciled, one thing that both of them have in common is a decrease in the failure of the health care bill this summer. The House already passed its version of the tax reform bill, and the next step will be to reconcile this bill with the Senate’s version of the tax reform bill.

Without a doubt, the net neutrality controversy has been one of the biggest issues in the United States in recent years. Without it, we would be unable to access the news, science, and entertainment online. Netflix and YouTube users would not be able to use their current strategies to ensure ownership of the popular restaurant, Buffalo Wild Wings. It will be interesting to see how the franchise will change now that Arby’s Acquires BBW.

The Senate passed their version of the Restoring Internet Freedom Order early Saturday morning. The vote was around 500 pages, with over 100 amendments sprung into the margin of the page. In retaliation, competitors are making changes to the bill, even hand-written revisions to the minor.

In spite of this recent acquisition, Buffalo Wild Wings has recently faced different struggles caused by the increased number of people eating at home. There have also been large amounts of competition coming from a number of fast food restaurants. Arby’s, an American sandwich chain, has asked about the new deal, had this question, “We are excited to welcome a brand with such a rich heritage, as part of the franchise will change now that Arby’s Acquires BBW.”

Arby’s CEO Paul Brown, when asked about the new deal, had this question, “We are excited to welcome a brand with such a rich heritage, as part of the franchise will change now that Arby’s Acquires BBW.”

Although the House tax bill and the Senate version of the bill have not been reconciled, one thing that both of them have in common is a decrease in the failure of the health care bill this summer. The House already passed its version of the tax reform bill, and the next step will be to reconcile this bill with the Senate’s version of the tax reform bill.

Without a doubt, the net neutrality controversy has been one of the biggest issues in the United States in recent years. Without it, we would be unable to access the news, science, and entertainment online. Netflix and YouTube users would not be able to use their current strategies to ensure ownership of the popular restaurant, Buffalo Wild Wings. It will be interesting to see how the franchise will change now that Arby’s Acquires BBW.

The Senate passed their version of the Restoring Internet Freedom Order early Saturday morning. The vote was around 500 pages, with over 100 amendments sprung into the margin of the page. In retaliation, competitors are making changes to the bill, even hand-written revisions to the minor.

In spite of this recent acquisition, Buffalo Wild Wings has recently faced different struggles caused by the increased number of people eating at home. There have also been large amounts of competition coming from a number of fast food restaurants. Arby’s, an American sandwich chain, has asked about the new deal, had this question, “We are excited to welcome a brand with such a rich heritage, as part of the franchise will change now that Arby’s Acquires BBW.”

Arby’s CEO Paul Brown, when asked about the new deal, had this question, “We are excited to welcome a brand with such a rich heritage, as part of the franchise will change now that Arby’s Acquires BBW.”

Although the House tax bill and the Senate version of the bill have not been reconciled, one thing that both of them have in common is a decrease in the failure of the health care bill this summer. The House already passed its version of the tax reform bill, and the next step will be to reconcile this bill with the Senate’s version of the tax reform bill.

Without a doubt, the net neutrality controversy has been one of the biggest issues in the United States in recent years. Without it, we would be unable to access the news, science, and entertainment online. Netflix and YouTube users would not be able to use their current strategies to ensure ownership of the popular restaurant, Buffalo Wild Wings. It will be interesting to see how the franchise will change now that Arby’s Acquires BBW.
Dalal Bima
Staff Writer

I am left to wonder, what would I do to survive?

“From the depths of the mirror, a corpse was contemplating me.” These were the words of Elie Wiesel when he saw his reflection in the mirror for the first time after he became a free man. We think we know about WWII, until we come across books like Night, Man’s Search for Meaning, and many other accounts. Books where the authors tell us their terrifying memories of the death of their families, the destruction of their own innocence, and confronting the absolute evil of man. Born in the town of Sighet, Transylvania, Elie Wiesel was a teenager when he and his family were taken from their home, in 1944, to the Auschwitz concentration camp. When we talk about the holocaust, we learn about how it was a dark time where Hitler and his followers were exterminating Jewish people, and how millions of people have been killed. We learn about it in a vague way, with no colors—it is just a part of history. Then you read this book. You read and realize how hard it is for you to continue the page in front of you, and you start to wonder about how the people in these stories survived, let alone how they were able to come back from something like this.

“It is so hard for me to comprehend that this has actually happened: people were this cruel, this evil. Night, by the Noble Peace Prize Laureate Eliezer Wiesel, is an autobiographical narrative in which the author describes, in detail, his experience in Nazi concentration camps. Described by The New York Times as “a slim volume of terrifying power.”

Although this book is only about 120 pages, I found myself immersed in a story of this 16-year-old teenager, going through horrifying experiences while trying to survive in deadly Nazi camps. What is special about the edition I read is that it came with a preface from Wiesel reflecting on the enduringLegacy of Night, the phases that the book has gone through to see the light, and his passionate dedication to ensure that the world will never forget man’s capacity for inhumanity to man.

Reading books like Night make my mind scream questions like “How? How? How did so many people follow such an evil regime? How inhuman can a human become to toss people and infants into fire?”

The Hitman’s Bodyguard, on the other hand, exists. It can be incredibly entertaining when the explosions just aren’t enough, and the people are fighting each other, so if you are looking for original story lines, this might not be for you. But with only comprehending the things I read in these books, but also considering the people you see on the street, it really becomes a hard environment to think of.

Favorite quote from the book: “We were the most remote of the remote—less than a speck of dust in the vastness of the world. We had transcended everything—a drama, the darkness, our natural needs, the sun, the moon, the stars, the wind, the cold, the heat, the night without losing their minds. We had transcended everything, but we were only men on earth.”

Elie Wiesel

“Night is full of colors. There are several firefights played entirely for humor, the film knows when to loosen up, and allow the sheer absurdity of the situation to entertain when the explosions just aren’t enough. But with classics such as entirely too casual combat hunter, or with some refreshing new tricks, such as allowing the mayhem to pile up by in the background of the scene, the film delivers exactly what you would expect for the genre of quasi-buddy cop action comedy, also but remedies you just why such a genre exists. It can be incredibly entertaining when done right.

And you thought your lab partner was hard to work with.

Dakota Johnson

Staff Writer

Samuel L. Jackson (the hitman) and Ryan Reynolds (the bodyguard) do a spectacular job of bringing the film to life. Independently, they are masters of visual cues, comedic timing, and satisfying action sequences, but together? They make a vitriolic best buddy cop show that one cannot help but adore. Slaughtering a corpse was contemplating me.

The Hitman’s Bodyguard also delivers on top notch action sequences, with a refreshing mixture of emotional tensions to boot.

Samuel L. Jackson (the hitman) and Ryan Reynolds (the bodyguard) do a spectacular job of bringing the film to life. Independently, they are masters of visual cues, comedic timing, and satisfying action sequences, but together? They make a vitriolic best buddy cop show that one cannot help but adore. Slaughtering a corpse was contemplating me.
A look into: theneedledrop
Hey Everyone, Rosethany Thornzano Here

Sean Laddipo
Lifestyle Editor

You Tube, founded in 2005, has exploded in popularity since the days of its beginning. This platform, famous for letting its users broadcast themselves to the public has evolved throughout the years. In the beginning, it was just a collection of miscellaneous videos, and then it graduated to a platform for people to make arguments and put their opinions into the public eye; these opinions being shared throughout the internet for millions to see. In recent years many have witnessed this opinion sharing evolve into a solid platform for people to not only share their ideas but to make a career out of whatever they are sharing. There are truly no limits to what one can make on a platform on YouTube (as long as it fits their fairly liberal guidelines) and there are millions of channels covering a plethora of topics that have, due to various forms of ad revenue, have become quite a lucrative business for many people. Many people.

Lifestyle
By Rebecca Deczynski

BOUJIE RAMEN
Your Ramen Sucks. Here’s How to Make it Better

1. Switch out the broth for miso-Take a break from the flavor packet for a different, more whole-some taste. Mix in a spoonful of miso paste with your water and your bowl o’ noodles will become tastier and healthier — not to mention more authen-tic.

2. Crack an egg into it—Honest question: Is there anything an egg doesn’t improve? The possibilities for adding some yolk-y goodness to your noodles are great: Toss in a hardboiled egg, mix in some scrambled eggs, or add a raw egg to the pot and allow it to cook in your broth for a couple minutes.

3. Pour in Frozen Veggies—OK maybe a bowl of noodles isn’t the healthiest meal — but a cup of veg- etables can fix that. Throw in some frozen peas, carrots, and broccoli two to three minutes before your ramen is done cooking for some extra nutrients.

4. Sprinkle in Soy Sauce—If you like things on the salty side, then soy sauce, or shoyu, is for you. Just a teaspoon adds the perfect amount of salty flavor to a bowl of noodles without overpowering it.

5. Mix in some Protein—Adding in stir-fried tofu or chicken makes a bowl of noodles a bit more substan-tial, so toss in your favorite protein for long-lasting energy.

6. Broil it—You read that right — if you prefer your ramen to be more noodle-based than soup-based, take it off the stove a few minutes before it’s finished, drain the broth, and place it in the oven to broil for a minute or two. You’ll be left with a perfectly crunchy top layer with deliciously smooth noodles underneath.

7. Stir-Fry it—A couple minutes in some oil does won-ders. Toss your ramen in a wok or lightly oiled pan for a wonderfully carb-filled sauté.

This man gave DAMN. a seven out of ten.

Photos Courtesy of istockphoto.com

That all being said today on the lifestyle page I am going to be talk-ing about a very popular YouTube creator by the name of Antony Fantano. He is the owner of the "the needledrop" channel which is where most of his content resides alongside his social commentary called “fantano”. Antony Fantano is self-proclaimed to be the "internet’s busiest music needle", and a look into his channel shows just as such. He primarily does album reviews reaching into many different gen- res and gives an unbiased opinion on the music. What I like about how Fantano does his reviews is that he does not just look at one aspect of the music whether it be the beat, the lyrical composition, or even the album construction as a whole. He takes the time to dissect each part of the music and look at the entire scope of a project and how the artists who create them portray their work. In my eyes he does this flawlessly removing his personal taste letting his passion for music fuel his re- views and opinions about albums letting him appreciate country music in the same light as hip hop for example.

That being said when it comes to Fantano himself he truly is a class act at the same time adding a humorous effect to many of his videos. He also constantly offers some of his own insight onto many controversial topics in the music community the Tidaliasco along with sexuality in hip-hop. His opinions about topics are straight down the middle and he is very to the point straying from beating around the bush on such con-troversy.

Although he is not always so serious as he has an alter ego for comic relief that makes a cameo in has made of his videos. This character by the name of a Cal Chucesta is a wannabe rapper that has a less than in-teresting life who often makes parody’s of popular hip-hop tracks. This may not be for everyone although it definitely gives his channel a little extra something to keep his reviews fresh and interesting.

For anyone that a wants to find a deeper understanding for some al-bums they may have never thought about listening to or for those who appreciate music this may be a channel for you to spend some time at in the future.

By Rebecca Deczynski

That all being said today on the lifestyle page I am going to be talk-ing about a very popular YouTube creator by the name of Antony Fantano. He is the owner of the "the needledrop" channel which is where most of his content resides alongside his social commentary called “fantano”. Antony Fantano is self-proclaimed to be the "internet’s busiest music needle", and a look into his channel shows just as such. He primarily does album reviews reaching into many different gen- res and gives an unbiased opinion on the music. What I like about how Fantano does his reviews is that he does not just look at one aspect of the music whether it be the beat, the lyrical composition, or even the album construction as a whole. He takes the time to dissect each part of the music and look at the entire scope of a project and how the artists who create them portray their work. In my eyes he does this flawlessly removing his personal taste letting his passion for music fuel his re- views and opinions about albums letting him appreciate country music in the same light as hip hop for example.

That being said when it comes to Fantano himself he truly is a class act at the same time adding a humorous effect to many of his videos. He also constantly offers some of his own insight onto many controversial topics in the music community the Tidaliasco along with sexuality in hip-hop. His opinions about topics are straight down the middle and he is very to the point straying from beating around the bush on such con-troversy.

Although he is not always so serious as he has an alter ego for comic relief that makes a cameo in has made of his videos. This character by the name of a Cal Chucesta is a wannabe rapper that has a less than in-teresting life who often makes parody’s of popular hip-hop tracks. This may not be for everyone although it definitely gives his channel a little extra something to keep his reviews fresh and interesting.

For anyone that a wants to find a deeper understand for some al-bums they may have never thought about listening to or for those who appreciate music this may be a channel for you to spend some time at in the future.

By Rebecca Deczynski

That all being said today on the lifestyle page I am going to be talk-ing about a very popular YouTube creator by the name of Antony Fantano. He is the owner of the "the needledrop" channel which is where most of his content resides alongside his social commentary called “fantano”. Antony Fantano is self-proclaimed to be the "internet’s busiest music needle", and a look into his channel shows just as such. He primarily does album reviews reaching into many different gen- res and gives an unbiased opinion on the music. What I like about how Fantano does his reviews is that he does not just look at one aspect of the music whether it be the beat, the lyrical composition, or even the album construction as a whole. He takes the time to dissect each part of the music and look at the entire scope of a project and how the artists who create them portray their work. In my eyes he does this flawlessly removing his personal taste letting his passion for music fuel his re- views and opinions about albums letting him appreciate country music in the same light as hip hop for example.

That being said when it comes to Fantano himself he truly is a class act at the same time adding a humorous effect to many of his videos. He also constantly offers some of his own insight onto many controversial topics in the music community the Tidaliasco along with sexuality in hip-hop. His opinions about topics are straight down the middle and he is very to the point straying from beating around the bush on such con-troversy.

Although he is not always so serious as he has an alter ego for comic relief that makes a cameo in has made of his videos. This character by the name of a Cal Chucesta is a wannabe rapper that has a less than in-teresting life who often makes parody’s of popular hip-hop tracks. This may not be for everyone although it definitely gives his channel a little extra something to keep his reviews fresh and interesting.

For anyone that a wants to find a deeper understand for some al-bums they may have never thought about listening to or for those who appreciate music this may be a channel for you to spend some time at in the future.

By Rebecca Deczynski

That all being said today on the lifestyle page I am going to be talk-ing about a very popular YouTube creator by the name of Antony Fantano. He is the owner of the "the needledrop" channel which is where most of his content resides alongside his social commentary called “fantano”. Antony Fantano is self-proclaimed to be the "internet’s busiest music needle", and a look into his channel shows just as such. He primarily does album reviews reaching into many different gen- res and gives an unbiased opinion on the music. What I like about how Fantano does his reviews is that he does not just look at one aspect of the music whether it be the beat, the lyrical composition, or even the album construction as a whole. He takes the time to dissect each part of the music and look at the entire scope of a project and how the artists who create them portray their work. In my eyes he does this flawlessly removing his personal taste letting his passion for music fuel his re- views and opinions about albums letting him appreciate country music in the same light as hip hop for example.

That being said when it comes to Fantano himself he truly is a class act at the same time adding a humorous effect to many of his videos. He also constantly offers some of his own insight onto many controversial topics in the music community the Tidaliasco along with sexuality in hip-hop. His opinions about topics are straight down the middle and he is very to the point straying from beating around the bush on such con-troversy.

Although he is not always so serious as he has an alter ego for comic relief that makes a cameo in has made of his videos. This character by the name of a Cal Chucesta is a wannabe rapper that has a less than in-teresting life who often makes parody’s of popular hip-hop tracks. This may not be for everyone although it definitely gives his channel a little extra something to keep his reviews fresh and interesting.

For anyone that a wants to find a deeper understand for some al-bums they may have never thought about listening to or for those who appreciate music this may be a channel for you to spend some time at in the future.

By Rebecca Deczynski
Opinions Editor

Over the past few centuries, public discourse has repeatedly shown that once a system has shifted significantly. We once feared terrors of conquest and disease, but now, as nations overcome their fall of empires and we ought to begin to look at society’s.”

Today, however, this message has been lost. The stories of men vs. self and man vs. nature have given way to society vs. man. Our concept of the importance and responsibility in how we treat nature, health, society; “Yes We Can.” We no longer look to fix ourselves to solve problems, but we look to the world about society.

What marks this shift? What is it, so different between society and man? This shift is rooted in the rejection of the struggle of man vs. self. The idea of self-control is not only clearly discussed, but one that we ought to be critical of ourselvesrepressed.

When once we might have accepted AKAs a way to have responsibility to confront our sin and redress the violence with the causes of peace and harmony. The idea to accept their deviancy.

In the tale of the flood, God, many different ways, God commands Noah to build a huge boat to save all the animals on the Earth. When Noah and his family had completed the task, God realized that the boat was already too big, and there was no way to get it into the sea. He then decided to teach us that we have no responsibility to criticize others to the world in order to see us as we are.

We’ve been more and more accepting that there are certain rights to which we are owed, and that respect of those rights is to be de- fended. The underlying assumption is that we can pass blame onto society for our woes. Yes, there are things that are not ameliorable. It’s not one’s fault they face discrimination. It’s not the fault of the rural area with no access to STEM medical care, even if they were molested as a child. We can continue finding millions of prob- lems that aren’t the society’s own.

What I find appalling is the in-7 creasing use of poor circumstances as excuse for failure in life. In an abuser parent no less responsible on our parts, for whether they were abused as children? Most of us, we areolfected that the burden of society is to blame for the failure of our actions. Yet, we seem to have no qualms making the same type of judgments on ourselves, our achievement in life. If you weren’t able to become a CEO or a professional, man, you ain’t no good. Society’s. What is the fundamental difference between those two actions? I believe it is described by the term “social justic.”

I believe it is described by the term “social justic.”

The 2015 order did not fix the issue of entry cost, it exacerbated it instead.

Two Short Takes

Early 2015, the Federal Com- munication Commission (FCC) voted to apply many of the same rules that telephone services follow to broadband serv- ices like Verizon, Comcast, and AT&T. The vote seemed to resolve the issue of broadband providers treating all web traffic as equally as possible. We were told that this would allow ISPs to use in- formation about your browsing habits to sell you more personal- ized content (while better understanding your buying habits) and charge you a fee for that data. That was the intent of the FCC. That is, if the ISP didn’t disagree with the order.

The FCC’s decision on the neutrality debate, many different ways, the FCC is the only authority that can tell us what’s right, and once it’s decided, the decision is final.

New, the current FCC under the Trump administration has re- looked at the FCC ruling and FCC chairman Ajit Pai said that he wishes to repeal the Net Neutrality decision, all under a new administration. The current FCC chairman is appointed by the President, and in social media have reacted negatively to the new FCC chairman. Net Neutrality all it’s hyped up but it’s not.

Andrew Henderson

Stamford

The FCC’s net neutrality order is not perfect, there is a reason that everyone is so hyped up about the order. Simply put, Net Neutrality laws need to be developed better. As the manufacturing like Comcast and AT&T have over the broadband market. Many Americans only have access to 1 or 2 providers, and if you are not able to gain access to another provider’s ability to limit negative behaviors. Net neutrality does help prevent large ISPs from taking advantage from those behaviors by outflanking smaller ISPs and preventing them to treat all data equally. However, it doesn’t fit the issue of national security, the consumer was initially actually furthers the grasp of the consumer.

One of the major reasons for Americans not being able to support faster speeds requires more expensive infrastructure. This is why not only are ISPs in the 2000s were far slower than their larger competitors.

The 2015 Net Neutrality order did not fix the problem, the FCC has not fixed it. However, the order was enacted. By mandating access to data, small ISPs were forced to bundle. Like large ISPs and could not support their pricing model of consumers in a situation, this prevented smaller ISPs from competing as they did not have the price necessary to compete.

New policies are in place,

Incredibly beneficial and profitable for consumerism, for example, imagine and in social science student in social media, but loves most social science student in social media, but loves most fast how to care fast how we access to social media services are, but want their streaming services to run as smoothly as possible. An ISP un- der the new order would not bundle that decreases for the consumer, the bundling and streaming are able to bundle.

RHT Men's Basketball

Blake Powell

Sports Editor

Rose-Hulman won their first win of the season in a 77-65 win over Defiance College. The Fightin' Engineers were 4-0 in their conference and would fall right before the first half and couldn't come back. Defense was forced to foul in the last minute, which Rose-Hulman finished 8-8 on their free throws. On the day, Rose- Hulman shot 52% from the floor and went 25-31 from the foul line as a unit. Defense shot 42.6% and went 7-25 from three point territory. Defense was just 8-13 from the foul line. Congrats to the men on their first win and way to start conference play.

RHT Women's Basketball

Blake Powell

Sports Editor

Rose-Hulman won their improved to 4-3-27th consecutive women's overall with a 1-0 record in home basketball game. The HCAC while Defiance fell leads the NCAA Division I overall and 0-1 in the conference level. The Fightin’ tags play. Rose-Hulman Engineers ended all game: 25-13 from the foul line. Rose-Hulman will return to action on Monday, 7pm and go on to start conference as a unit. Defiance fell right before the first half and couldn't come back. Defense was forced to foul in the last minute, which Rose-Hulman finished 8-8 on their free throws. On the day, Rose-

RHT Player of the Week

Charlie Aimone is the RHT Player of the Week. Aimone is a junior Civil Engineering ma-

Year from his accomplishments over the course of the season, which includes making history for the women's cross country team. The coaching staff also includes assistant coach Larry Cole and student assistant Dan Birkmick, son of Rose-Hulman Athletic Hall of Fame member Roger Birkmick.

Then on November 13th, the women’s team tied school history with 18th overall in the Regional Tournament. Congratulations to the team and coaches on the history they made over the course of the season!

Women's Cross Country

The Fightin’ Engineers Women's Cross CHasions are our next, and Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference championship at a tightly contested meet at Manchester University late in October.

The women scored 56 points to win its first women’s cross country conference championship in the twentieth-year-three years of program history.

The Fightin’ Engineers relied on two all-conference performances from Kally Mowinck and Cindie Blaisdell in the six-kilometer. Rachel Sha-bella, Emma Ross and Morgan Hulman were all recognized on the All-Conference Team for their efforts.

Amellie Co-
sidy, Alexis Ke-
vans and Sarajul-

Women’s cross-country dominating.

Photo By Rose-Hulman Athletics

Congrats to the men on their first win this season as well. Congrats on all of your accomplishments thus far and more to come.

Photo by Rose-Hulman Athletics

Sports

RHT SPORTS SCHEDULES

December 2nd-@UK-11 AM
December 3rd-@UC-10 AM

January 12th-@DePauw-6 PM
January 13th-Illinois Wesleyan-1 PM
January 19th-Carmel-6 PM
January 26th-Franklin-6 PM

February 9th, 10th and 11th-Terre Haute-10 AM

*HCAC Championships

March 2nd and 3rd-@Chicago-TBA

*NCAC Diving Regional

Swimming

Basketball

Men

December

2nd-Defiance-7 PM

6th-Mt. St. Joseph-7:30 PM

9th-@Trinity-3 PM

19th-@Mount St. Joseph-7:30 PM

18th-@Byrce-5 PM

21st-Wabash-7:30 PM

January

3rd-@Anderson-7:30 PM

6th-@Earlham-2 PM

10th-Franklin-7:30 PM

13th-Bloomington-1 PM

17th-@Anderson-7:30 PM

20th-Defiance-3 PM

24th-@Mount St. Joseph-3 PM

27th-Trinity-3 PM

31st-@Hulman-7:30 PM

Women

December

2nd-Defiance-7 PM

6th-Mt. St. Joseph-7:30 PM

9th-@Trinity-3 PM

19th-@Mount St. Joseph-7:30 PM

18th-@Byrce-5 PM

21st-Wabash-7:30 PM

January

3rd-@Anderson-7:30 PM

6th-@Earlham-2 PM

10th-Franklin-7:30 PM

13th-Bloomington-1 PM

17th-@Anderson-7:30 PM

20th-Defiance-3 PM

24th-@Mount St. Joseph-3 PM

27th-Trinity-3 PM

31st-@Hulman-7:30 PM

Standout Performers

Charlie Aimone- 5 points and 7 rebounds
David Sandstrom- Still no sign of him

Charlie Aimone is the RHT Player of the Week. Aimone is a junior Civil Engineering major from Terre Haute, Indiana. Aimone has had a great career thus far as he was named second team All-GAC as a sopho-

Sports

RHT SPORTS BOX SCORES

RHT Men’s Basketball

Blake Powell

Sports Editor

Rose-Hulman won their first win of the season in a 77-65 win over Defiance College. The Fightin’ Engineers were 4-0 in their conference and would fall right before the first half and couldn't come back. Defense was forced to foul in the last minute, which Rose-Hulman finished 8-8 on their free throws. On the day, Rose-

RHT Women’s Basketball

Blake Powell

Sports Editor

Rose-Hulman won their improved to 4-3-27th consecutive women's overall with a 1-0 record in home basketball game. The HCAC while Defiance fell leads the NCAA Division I overall and 0-1 in the conference level. The Fightin’ tags play. Rose-Hulman Engineers ended all game: 25-13 from the foul line. Rose-Hulman will return to action on Monday, 7pm and go on to start conference as a unit. Defiance fell right before the first half and couldn't come back. Defense was forced to foul in the last minute, which Rose-Hulman finished 8-8 on their free throws. On the day, Rose-

RHT Women’s Basketball

Blake Powell

Sports Editor

Rose-Hulman won their improved to 4-3-27th consecutive women's overall with a 1-0 record in home basketball game. The HCAC while Defiance fell leads the NCAA Division I overall and 0-1 in the conference level. The Fightin’ tags play. Rose-Hulman Engineers ended all game: 25-13 from the foul line. Rose-Hulman will return to action on Monday, 7pm and go on to start conference as a unit. Defiance fell right before the first half and couldn't come back. Defense was forced to foul in the last minute, which Rose-Hulman finished 8-8 on their free throws. On the day, Rose-
National 7 Day Forecast

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>04</td>
<td>05</td>
<td>06</td>
<td>07</td>
<td>08</td>
<td>09</td>
<td>10</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

WACKY PROF QUOTES

"You will be inspired. You’ll be inspired AF.”
- Dr. Terence Casey

"First, we will convert it \[(i - \sqrt{3})^6\] to polar form. I really hope no one tried to FOIL this. It might take you about a year..."
- Dr. Igor Minevich

“My prof just said something really funny in class but I forgot to write it down. I can’t remember it now, but it would’ve been perfect!”
- The Sorry Students of Rose-Hulman

Did you hear something amusing on your course? Did your prof say something hilarious or just great out of context? Send your quotes with who said it to thorn-flipside@rose-hulman.edu or fill out this nifty google form: https://goo.gl/forms/bB39jsx6GHohggYt1

The HORRScopes

This week’s horoscopes are brought to you by Weary Willie who was contacted via Ouija Board. His tortured soul is now haunting the Heritage Trail. You’re welcome and I’m sorry.

ARIES: Chop some onions and cry.
TAURUS: He protec. He attac. He cry about prob stat.
GEMINI: Cry about One Direction breaking up and the fact they were never nominated for any Grammies.
CANCER: Take a moment to shed a tear for Harambe.
LEO: Watch Shrek and cry over the death of Farquaad. If you’ve never seen Shrek, cry about the spoiler above.
VIRGO: Cry while avoiding the devil geese around Speed Lake.
LIBRA: Reserve a library room for a private cry session.
SCORPIO: Cry because you passed a mirror.
SAGITTARIUS: Go to a strip club and cry about the great tits there.
CAPRICORN: Go to your coworker’s Thanksgiving.
AQUARIUS: Cry about the presidency.
PISCES: Watch The Notebook. Don’t cry because you are one tough mama jama.

Top 10 Ways to Repair Family Relationships after Thanksgiving

1. Move to a different state.
2. Trial by combat.
3. Sacrifice the eldest child.
4. Flex Seal.
5. Don’t; it’s not worth it.
6. Host a family game night with Monopoly and Mario Party.
7. Egg nog spiked with grain alcohol.
8. Offer tribute; also known as Christmas gifts.
9. Slash your aunt’s tires to let out the pent up aggression.
10. Thanksgiving clapforwards.
11. Go to your coworker’s Thanksgiving.
12. Start an apocalypse to redirect attention.
13. Save that juicy comeback for Christmas.
14. Go on vacation to South America.
15. "Trust" fall - trust falls always work.
16. Gang up on somebody else.
17. Force family bonding time.
18. Apply for asylum in North Korea.
19. Find a new family on Craig’s List.
20. Enroll whole family in Hybrid Physics Course.

Illustrations Courtesy of Jérôme Gonfond

Illustrations Courtesy of Darkone

Dr. Terence Casey
Dr. Igor Minevich

Photo Courtesy of Darkone

This week’s horoscopes are brought to you by Weary Willie who was contacted via Ouija Board. His tortured soul is now haunting the Heritage Trail. You’re welcome and I’m sorry.

Aries: Chop some onions and cry.
Taurus: He protec. He attac. He cry about prob stat.
Gemini: Cry about One Direction breaking up and the fact they were never nominated for any Grammies.
Cancer: Take a moment to shed a tear for Harambe.
Leo: Watch Shrek and cry over the death of Farquaad. If you’ve never seen Shrek, cry about the spoiler above.
Virgo: Cry while avoiding the devil geese around Speed Lake.
Libra: Reserve a library room for a private cry session.
Scorpio: Cry because you passed a mirror.
Sagittarius: Go to a strip club and cry about the great tits there.
Capricorn: Go to your coworker’s Thanksgiving.
Aquarius: Cry about the presidency.
Pisces: Watch The Notebook. Don’t cry because you are one tough mama jama.

Did you all enjoy Mawlid an-Nabi on Friday? If that’s not your thing, fret not; Channukah starts next Tuesday! If neither of these holidays are for you, sorry. Islam and Judaism are the only two religions I can think of off the top of my head. Please send an email with questions, concerns, or content to the Thorn Flipside Editor - thorn-flipside@rose-hulman.edu

Disclaimer: The Flipside is purely for fun! Any uncredited work above can be attributed to me, Emma Osoood.